SPECIFICATIONS

- Soft Touch Leather – Vintage Look with Studded Finishing
- Upholstered in full-grain semi-aniline leather.
- Turned Feet with small castors
- Full-grain leather is the strong top layer of the animal hide. Using full-grain leather ensures the natural richness and feel of the original surface is maintained and celebrated as much as possible. Real leather is a natural product and as such, will often bear the hallmarks of its origin. Characteristics such as natural growth marks, scars, branding marks, creases and areas of grain variance are not detrimental to the durability of the product, they emphasise that authentic hides have been used
